I The principles of Himawari Junior High School

We aim to create a school where students can enjoy learning and want to continue learning.

We aim to create a school where students can have a variety of experiences with classmates.

2 People eligible for enrollment (application requirements)

- People living in Kitakyushu City
- People who have not completed compulsory education for a variety of reasons.
- People who wish to resume their study at school for various reasons such as school refusal etc.
- Non-Japanese who were unable to receive sufficient compulsory education in Japan or their home country

※People born before April 1, 2010

3 Number of applicants being accepted

- We don't have a fixed enrollment capacity, but the number of registered students is expected to be around 30.
- If there are too many applicants, you may need to wait until the classrooms are ready.

4 How do students study?

- Students study all the subjects (9 subjects) learned in junior high school.
 - ※Students can also study elementary school curriculum by request.
- Classes are held every day from Monday to Friday.
- There are 4 class periods in the evening instead of the daytime.
- Japanese language support can be provided to non-Japanese and others, if necessary.

5 Commuting

- Please walk, cycle, or use public transportation (JR, monorail, or bus) to commute to school.
 - ※"Student commuter pass" is available at a student discount.
- As a rule, students are not allowed to drive a car or motorcycle to school.
 - ※Please consult with us if you need a wheel chair, etc.

6 Others

- People who work during the day can also enroll.
- Students are free to wear any clothing while studying at school. (There is no school uniform.)
- There are no tuition fees. Textbooks are also provided for free.
- There is no school meal.
- Fees are required for some learning contents. (study materials, practical exercise, etc.)
- There are summer, winter, and spring breaks.
